

Satellite radio is the best form of radio out there. Being the best means bringing all types of content to listeners. This content should include local programming- weather, news, etc. Don't take away our rights, instead force fm radio to compete with less commercials and more quality programming!